

P7 Weekly Plan

20th–27th April

Launch of Mayberry Mystery—new CSI project!

Read

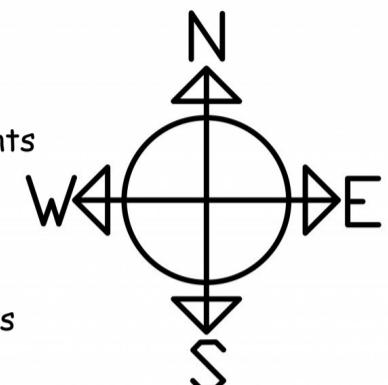

NEW NOVEL STUDY!

- I can make relevant comments about the features of the author's language including word choice, sentence structure and punctuation
- I recognise and talk about the techniques authors use to influence their readers, especially emotive language and revealing a character's thoughts

Maths and Numeracy

- I can draw scale diagrams
- I know and can label 8 compass points
- I can give a three figure bearing for the 8 compass points
- I can solve direction problems using compass points and 3 figure bearings
- I recognise the link between this work and my knowledge of angles

Write

PERSUASIVE WRITING

I am learning to write a discursive essay in which:

- I clearly convey the topic of discussion in the introduction
- I clearly indicates my stance in relation to the topic
- I clearly detail arguments to support my stance
- I indicate another side to the argument
- I reiterates my stance in a conclusion

FRENCH

I can describe someone including height, eye colour, hair colour and clothing

I know the names of different body parts

The Mayberry Mystery: STEM Project 3

We are launching an exciting new project in which we have to solve a crime using detective skills and forensic science!

DETECTIVE SKILLS TASKS

- I am practise my observation and listening skills and show attention to detail in observation tasks
- I can use critical thinking skills to consider problems from different perspectives
- I am working on improving my visual memory

PREPARING FOR THE PROJECT

- I know the different roles, duties and skills required to be part of the crime scene team
- I have reflected on my own skills and how they could be useful in the task
- I understand the importance of planning and considering all the evidence to avoid jumping to conclusions in any problem solving task
- I am learning about the importance of, and issues surrounding, eyewitness statements
- I can give examples of some common signs that someone is lying
- I know about different types of higher order questions

Social Studies: World War 2

- I organise a timeline showing the main events of World War 2 and find out the dates of these events
- I can discuss the key events that led to the end of the war

WORLD
WAR II

Diary Dates

(NEW TIMETABLE FOR PE AND MUSIC)

- PE: Wednesdays and Thursdays
- Music: Wednesdays
- Wednesday 27th—CSI team to visit Mining Museum (more info to follow)
- Homework - job application for Friday